DOG DISEASES TREATED by HOMOEOPATHY. By JAMES MOORE, M.R.C.V.S.

"Those who love their dogs will be thankful to Mr. Moore for his little manual on canine ailments. . . . Valuable hints for their management in health are also given."—Homoeopathic World.

"So rapid was the sale of this useful little book that the publishers have been encouraged to prepare a second edition, which gives us the opportunity of recommending it to those who have not previously read it. The volume in itself is but small, but in valuable information is correspondingly extensive; copious and useful hints are given on feeding, exercising, doctoring, nursing, and dog-buying; and there is something to learn on every page. We cannot say the book a higher compliment than wishing it a corner in every dog-owner's library."

The Fancier's Gazette.

"The little work under review contains a great deal of valuable information, and it should be in the hands of all those who make pets or turn to use the canine species."—The Civil Service Gazette.

HOW TO SELECT AN OFFICE FOR LIFE ASSURANCE.

EXTRACT FROM THE BOARD OF TRADE'S REPORT, July 2, 1874.

"Taking insurance business as it exists in this country, the public cannot be misled if, when seeking an office in which to effect an insurance, they select one which transacts its business at a small per-centage of working cost, and does not anticipate its profits."

THESE TESTS ARE ENTIRELY FULFILLED

BY

THE ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY,

The Report itself showing that of all the English Provincial Offices and all the Scotch Offices the ROYAL'S Ratio of Expenses to its Premium Income is the Lowest, and the Company having never anticipated a single shilling of Profit.

LIFE FUNDS at Dec. 31, 1873 . . . £1,761,523
GENERAL RESERVE . . . £594,434
PAID-UP CAPITAL . . . £289,545

"We have examined and counted every Security, and have found all correct and in perfect order, and that the present aggregate market value is in excess of the amounts in the Balance-Sheet."—From AUDITORS' REPORT, July 17, 1874.

"An evidence of the care exercised in the investment of the Life Funds, it may be mentioned that they have never been reduced a single penny by bad or doubtful securities."—From CHAIRMAN'S SPEECH at Annual Meeting, August 7, 1874.

DR. ROBERTS'S CELEBRATED OINTMENT.

Called the "POOR MAN'S FRIEND."

Is confidently recommended to the Public as an unfailing remedy for Wounds of every description, a certain cure for ulcerated sore legs, (even if of twenty years' standing), burns, scalds, bruises, chilblains, scorbutic eruptions, and pimples on the face, sore and inflamed eyes, sore heads, &c. Sold in pots at 1s. 1d., 2s. 6d., 11s., and 22s. each.

Dr. ROBERTS'S PILULE ANTI-SCORBUTICÆ; or Alterative Pills, proved by sixty years' experience to be one of the best alterative medicines ever compounded for purifying the blood, and assisting Nature in all her operations. They are useful in scorbutic complaints, glandular swellings, particularly those of the neck, &c. They form a mild and superior family aperient, that may be taken at all times without confinement or change of diet. Sold in boxes at 1s. 1d., 2s. 6d., 11s., and 22s. each. Owing to the fact that no medicine sold under the above name can possibly be genuine unless it bears the name of Dr. Roberts, Bridport, is engraved on the Government stamp affixed to each package.

Prepared only by BEACH and BARNICOTT, Bridport, and sold by all Medicines Vendors.

MOODY AND SANKEY.

AMERICAN ORGANS in every variety of CRAMER'S Manufacture and on CRAMER'S Three Years System.

Prices from 15 Guineas, or £1 11s. 6d. a Quarter.

CRAMER and Co. by no means wish it to be understood, as in some quarters it would seem to have been, that their AMERICAN ORGANS are used by Messrs. Moody and Sankey at their interesting meetings.

CRAMER'S instruments are much more solid in manufacture, and infinitely superior in quality of tone, and are certainly not open to the objection made by perhaps the most influential literary and musical journal to the imported organs:—

"Judged from the artistic point of view, the instrument is no more agreeable to the ear than is the stentorian power displayed by the singer."

Moreover, while CRAMER'S AMERICAN ORGANS are more satisfactorily made, and better finished in all respects, they are sold at prices varying from 15 to 25 per cent. below those of all imported instruments.

These, and all other instruments of CRAMER'S manufacture, can be had on the three years system, which, originated by CRAMER'S, has been partially adopted by other firms, but is carried out on a thoroughly large and liberal scale only by themselves.

George Henry Brown, Esq. John Jackson, M.D.
The Hon. James Byng. Sir Rowland M. Stephenson.
Henry Walford Green, Esq. Chs. Freville Surtees, Esq.
Osgood Hanbury, Esq.

Actuary and Secretary—Frederick Hendrick, Esq.
At the Fortieth Annual Meeting of the Universal Life Assurance Society, held May 13, the results of the business of the Society, from its foundation in 1811, were stated to have been as follows:—Total assurance issued, 9,999,971; sums assured with bonuses existing, 3,198,870; total claims paid, 2,070,348; accumulated funds, 992,689; net annual revenue, 164,446; premiums on year's new business, 187,791; profits returned, in cash, to assured at thirty-five bonus divisions, 625,791. The reduction of premium for the current year on participating policies was fixed at 50 per cent., the present being the eleventh year continuously in which the premium, English and Indian, has received a cash rebate of one-half.

The Directors beg to draw attention to the great economy of premiums in this Society, to its large reserves, and to its experience of forty years, during which it has secured the utmost possible benefit to the Assured.

Branch Boards and Agencies in Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Ceylon. Additional Agents required in the United Kingdom. Rates for Indian Assurances largely reduced.

EPPS'S COCOA.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast-tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle malaries are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—See article in the Civil Service Gazette.

STANFORD'S NEW PHYSICAL WALL-MAP of the BRITISH ISLES, for Use in Schools and Colleges. Edited by A. F. RAMSAY, LL.D., F.R.S., &c., Director-General of the Geological Survey of the United Kingdom. The contours or curves of equal altitude and depression, that have been chosen for exhibiting upon this Map the Orography of the British Isles and of the adjacent sea-beds, start from the main level of the sea as a datum, and rise on the landward side to heights of 250, 500, 2,000, and lastly above 2,000 feet, and sink on the seaward side to depths of 150, 250, 500, 2,000, and 5,000 feet, and lastly to depths below 5,000 feet. Each of the intervals on land is marked by a different colour; tints of green being chosen for lowlands, and brown and pink for highlands and mountains; the sea is coloured blue, the colour increasing in intensity as the sea increases in depth. Amongst other interesting matters brought vividly to view is the relative proportion of cultivable lands in the Three Kingdoms. In one corner of the Map a Diagram of the British Isles is introduced, coloured in zones, to show the annual rainfall; the increasing rainfall being indicated by deepening tints of colour.

Nearly ready, size 32 inches by 27, price 3s.

NEW WORK BY PROFESSOR HENRY MORLEY.

Ready this day, PART I., price 7d., of

CASSELL'S

LIBRARY OF ENGLISH LITERATURE.

By HENRY MORLEY,

Professor of English Literature at University College, and Examiner in English Language, Literature, and History to the University of London.

Extract from Prospectus.

"To illustrate English Literature throughout its progressive development, and to provide a source of intellectual enjoyment for all classes of readers, by placing before them the best and most characteristic portions of our National Literature, and thus enabling all to supply themselves with what will be virtually a COMPREHENSIVE ENGLISH LIBRARY, is what we now propose to do. . . . Such is the noble Literature which we propose to place within the reach of every reader. Intensely interesting it truly is, as the outward expression of the national life of our country, uttered by some of the noblest and greatest of her sons, and destined to instruct and delight as long as men and women live who will read our Saxon-born English."

On April 26 will be published,

THE FOURTEENTH EDITION,

In 2 vols., price 24s., of

THE LIFE OF CHRIST.

BY THE

Rev. F. W. FARRAR, D.D., F.R.S.,

Master of Marlborough College, and Chaplain in Ordinary to the Queen.

"The value of the book in reference to sceptical objections will be that it exhibits in a most favourable form the aspect which the life of Christ bears when regarded from an orthodox point of view. No thoughtful mind will rise from the perusal of this book without feeling that it reveals a beautiful and an harmonious conception."—Times.
"We have in every page the result of an intimate acquaintance with the literature bearing upon this great subject."—Guardian.
"Dr. Farrar may certainly be congratulated upon a literary success to which the annals of English theology present no parallel."—Quarterly Review.

COMPLETION of THE BIBLE EDUCATOR.

Now ready, complete in 4 vols., price 6s. each; or two Double Volumes, price 11. 1s.

THE BIBLE EDUCATOR.

Edited by the Rev. E. H. PLUMPTRE, M.A.

Assisted by some of our most eminent Scholars and Divines. Illustrated with about 400 ILLUSTRATIONS and MAPS.

"We have no hesitation in placing the 'Bible Educator' beyond and above any similar work which has yet appeared in this country, for the value of its authority and varied extent of its information."—Standard.

Now ready, price 25s.

PRINCIPLES OF ORNAMENTAL ART.

By F. EDWARD HULME, F.L.S., F.S.A.,

Art Master in Marlborough College; Author of "Freehand Ornaments," &c.

WITH 32 ILLUSTRATIVE PLATES.

Royal 4to, cloth.

"A careful and painstaking investigation of the principles of art, and is illustrated with an immense number of well-drawn engravings taken from subjects of a most varied kind, ancient and modern, civilised and barbarian. To designers, decorators, and architects the work will be most valuable, and the price will place it within reach of many who cannot afford to purchase the very elaborate and expensive books which have hitherto been looked upon as the authorities upon the subject."—Standard.

Now ready, PART I., price 6d., of

THE NEW SERIAL EDITION OF

CASSELL'S BIBLE DICTIONARY,

WITH UPWARDS OF

600 ILLUSTRATIONS and MAPS.

To be completed in 36 PARTS.

"A thoroughly good Dictionary of the Bible, at once moderate in price, sound and varied in its critical information, written up to the time, and, above all, uniting independence of thought with orthodoxy of belief."—Record.

CASSELL, PETTER & GALPIN, Ludgate Hill, London.

New Edition, now ready, in 2 vols. 8vo, price 24s. cloth.

SUPERNATURAL RELIGION;

AN INQUIRY INTO THE REALITY OF DIVINE REVELATION.

Sixth Edition, carefully revised, with Eighty Pages of new Preface.

"The writer of 'Supernatural Religion' has conferred a boon on all students of theology."—Westminster Review.

"The book proceeds from a man of ability, a scholar, and a reasoner, whose discussions are conducted in a judicial method."—Athenaeum.

"By far the most decisive, trenchant, and far-reaching of the direct contributions to theological controversy that have been made in this generation."—Fortnightly Review.

"It is not often that the gifts and acquirements necessary to the composition of so masterly and exhaustive a treatise as the present are united in the same person."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"We give a hearty welcome to this learned and able work. . . . The masterly examination of the evidences for the antiquity of the Christian Scriptures in these volumes, so far as we know, is an unparalleled specimen in the English language."—Spectator.

"It abounds with acuteness and overflows with reading."—Academy.

"This is beyond doubt an important book. . . . The talent is unquestionable. Independence of thought, keenness of insight, width of information are attested in every chapter."—Literary World.

"The style is for the most part extremely clear and forcible; the lines of argument are traced with a firm hand, and the abundance of illustrative material contained in the notes constantly enables the reader to exercise independent judgment on the statement of the text."—Inquirer.

"The examination of the first three Gospels in relation to the early Fathers down to the date of the Muratorian Fragment, is one of the most complete undertakings of the kind which we have in English."—Guardian.

"A very learned and exact book."—MATTHEW ARNOLD, in the Contemporary Review.

"It is written in a style so calm, with learning so weighty, and ability so great, that it at once demands attention and commands respect."—Scotsman.

"His work is always earnest, and generally clear, his reasonings are direct, though they sometimes appear to us overstrained, and his main conclusions it will be found difficult to shake."—Theological Review.

"It would be mere bigotry to deny the erudition, the logical power, and, on the whole, the reverent tone exhibited by the author."—Standard.

HURST & BLACKETT'S NEW NOVELS.

SWEET and TWENTY. By Mortimer COLLINS. 3 vols.
"An amusing and entertaining novel."—Messenger.

BRENDA YORKE. By Mary Cecil Hay, Author of "Old Myddelton's Money," &c. 3 vols.

FELICIA. By M. Betham-Edwards, Author of "Kitty," &c. 3 vols.

"Felicia" is a noble novel. Few works in modern fiction stand so high in our estimation."—Sunday Times.
"A very charming story; graceful and finely executed."—Graphic.

DOLORES. By Mrs. Forrester, Author of "Fair Women," &c. 3 vols.

"An unusually good novel. One of the best stories we have read for a long time. The plot is well constructed, and there is plenty of stirring incident and clever delineation of character."—Post.

JOHN DORRIEN. By Julia Kavanagh, Author of "Nathalie," "Adèle," &c. 3 vols.

"We have read 'John Dorrien' from beginning to end with great pleasure."—Athenaeum.
"A capital book. The story is admirably told."—Standard.

THE LADY SUPERIOR. By Eliza F. POLLARD, Author of "Hope Deferred," &c. 3 vols.

"A clever novel. It is a good and spirited story. Its action is vigorous, the situations telling, and the characters well sustained."—Post.

The ITALIANS. By Frances Elliot, Author of "The Diary of an Idle Woman in Italy," &c. 3 vols.

"There is a great deal in 'The Italians' that is both fresh and clever. The book has the double recommendation of being entertaining and instructive. It is worth reading for its story, and it contains a series of capital pictures of Italian life and manners."—Times, March 26.

A CHILD of FORTUNE. By Stephen J. MAC KENNA, Author of "Off Parade," &c. 3 vols.

"This story is ingeniously contrived, and abounds in stirring incidents, striking scenes, and effective situations."—Pall Mall Gazette.

MACREADY'S

REMINISCENCES.

With SELECTIONS from his DIARIES and CORRESPONDENCE. Edited by Sir FREDERICK POLLOCK, Bart., one of his Executors. With Four Portraits, engraved by Jeens.

"It deserves to be a successful enterprise, for the work has not merely a dramatic but a general interest; it not only vividly relates old experiences, it enforces much valuable teaching. . . . The whole forms one of the most interesting, and, in many respects, valuable records of artistic and social life, as well as of the personal inward man. There is nothing omitted that a reader has a right to look for in such a record, as regards the history of the stage and the home life of the actor."—Athenaeum.

"It is a chronicle tinged constantly with strong feeling: full of the appreciation of a mind vigorous and cultivated, and sympathetic, too, for whatever was best in dramatic literature and dramatic performance. And we cannot have this chronicle, so pregnant, so full, so revealing as to its author's mind, without having, at the same time, a character. And it is in giving us a great actor's character, as well as the story of a career—and giving that character firmly, definitely, fully—that the main interest of the work will be found to consist, by those at least who, in the record of a life, want not the petty and chance facts for their own sake, but incidents in the development of a soul. . . . Macready's Reminiscences' abound in valuable criticism and interesting record."—Academy.

WILLIAM,
EARL OF
SHELburne,

Afterwards FIRST MARQUESS of LANSDOWNE. His Life, with Extracts from his Papers and Correspondence. By Lord EDMOND FITZMAURICE. In 2 vols. Vol. I., 1737 to 1766. (Vol. II. in the Press.)

"The present volume brings us down to the year 1766, and in it we find a most interesting account of the boyhood, youth, and early Parliamentary career of the future Prime Minister; personal and social reminiscences which are always either amusing or suggestive; some striking and elaborately drawn characters of Shelburne's contemporaries; and a light thrown upon the state of parties at the accession of George III., and the point of view from which Lord Shelburne regarded them, which not only is a great help to us in understanding Lord Shelburne's own position at a later period of his life, but is calculated to modify theories which it has long been heresy to question."—Times.

"The life of Lord Shelburne promises, if we may judge from the first volume, to be one of the most valuable contributions made of late years to the political history and biography of England during the latter half of the eighteenth century. . . . The future volumes will be looked for with interest by others than politicians."—Daily News.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

SECOND EDITION OF

UNTRODDEN SPAIN, and her BLACK

COUNTRY. Being Sketches of the Life and Character of the Spaniard of the Interior. By HUGH JAMES ROSE, M.A., of Oriel College, Oxford; Chaplain to the English, French, and German Mining Companies of Linares; and formerly Acting Chaplain to Her Majesty's Forces at Dover Garrison. In 2 vols. 8vo, price 30s.

"His title of 'Untrodden Spain' is no misnomer. He leads us into scenes and among classes of Spaniards where few English writers have preceded him. . . . We can only recommend our readers to get it and search for themselves. Those who are most intimately acquainted with Spain will best appreciate its varied excellencies."—Saturday Review.

"The author's kindness is as conspicuous as his closeness of observation and fairness of judgment; his sympathy with the people inspires his pen as happily as does his artistic appreciation of the country; and both have combined in the production of a work of striking novelty and sterling value."—Spectator.

"The author of this work has proved satisfactorily that there was room for yet another book on Spain. . . . It is fresh, life-like, and chatty, and is written by a man who is accustomed to look below the surface of things."—Standard.

"The result of his observations is one of the most trustworthy and interesting books upon Spanish life and manners in the southern provinces during a period of great political disquiet that we have ever had the good fortune to peruse. . . . We regret that we cannot make further extracts, for 'Untrodden Spain' is by far the best book upon Spanish peasant life that we have ever met with."—Athenaeum.

"Seidom has a book of travel come before us which has so taken our fancy in reading, and left behind it, when the reading was over, so distinct an impression."—Literary Churchman.

"It is the result of careful observation, it communicates many facts, it is written in a polished yet lively style, and will thus, perhaps, remain for some time the best reference-book about rural Spain."—Nonconformist.

"An amount of really valuable information respecting the lower classes of Spaniards, their daily life and conversation, and ways of looking at things, such as few writers have given us."—Field.

"We have rarely been able to recommend a book more cordially. It has not a dull page. . . . Deserves to be a great success."—John Bull.
